June 28, 2013

CyberConnect2 Co., Ltd.

CyberConnect2 Co., Ltd., a Japanese video game developer based in Fukuoka, Japan, announced that the Android version of their first action game for Smartphone “Shadow Escaper” will be released worldwide June 28, 2013.

“Shadow Escaper” is a free-to-play smartphone game taking place in a fantasy universe full of intense action and gorgeous visuals with simple and intuitive controls. First launched worldwide in February 2013 on iOS, it is continuously evolving by adding great new functions and upgrades such as the “Raid Mode” coop event, without forgetting rankings, characters evolution and customization, and several different play modes.

The long-awaited Android version of “Shadow Escaper” is now available for download on Google Play. For best play experience, we recommend Android 2.3.1 or higher (except 4.2.x) devices.

*Please note that not all devices may be supported.

We hope you will enjoy “Shadow Escaper” as we continue to improve it.

Daytime escape. Midnight revenge.

They are night dwellers. Daytime fugitives, escaping from the light.

The user plays as a fugitive “Night Dweller” who does not stop running away from the approaching Angel Army while dodging obstacles. During “Daytime”, you escape from the pursuers by going different routes, and then during “Nighttime” you fight back by unleashing the “Energy” collected during “Daytime”. With this simple but addictive gameplay, users can then compete for the best score, number of days survived, longest running distance in “Survivor Mode”, or collaborating with allies to defeat Bosses in “Raid Mode”.
